CANADIAN BUSINESS WOMAN NAMED AS FINALIST IN THE REAL ESTATE STAGING ASSOCIATION'S HOME STAGING INDUSTRY AWARDS

Winners to Be Announced in Las Vegas at the industry's yearly convention
January 24th, 2011

Markham, Ontario- November 15, 2010 Markham area home stager Monica Stanciu is named as a finalist in the Real Estate Staging Association™ (RESA®) Home Staging Industry Award™ in the Professional Stager of the Year Category. Home Stagers from all over North America submitted their applications for consideration for the industry's most prestigious awards.

"RESA(Real Estate Staging Association) congratulates and recognizes each person for their contributions to our industry. Our Industry Awards are a wonderful way to give back to the staging industry as a whole and to recognize some amazing people" said, Shell Brodnax, President/CEO of RESA.

"It is with tremendous pride and a deep sense of humility that I was nominated for the RESA Professional Stager of the Year™ Award. As a chemical engineer by profession and a marketing specialist by trade, if someone would have asked me 5 years ago about my career path and goals, I could never have guessed that my future and passion lay in the Home-Staging industry." said Monica Stanciu

The finalists will be judged by a panel of industry professionals and the winners will be announced at the RESA Home Staging International Conference, January 24th in Las Vegas.
